

Language of the Term

Our language of the term is...

German

Who speaks German?

German is the official language in Austria, Germany, Liechtenstein and Switzerland and has official status in Belgium and Luxembourg.

There are 118,000,000 people in the Germany, Austria, Liechtenstein, Switzerland, Belgium, Luxembourg, Russia, Romania, Hungary, the Czech Republic, Slovenia, Brazil, Argentina, South Africa, Chile, the United States of America, Australia and Puerto Rico who speak German.

Germany

The German flag is black, red and gold. These colours represent unity and freedom.

The Capital City of Germany is Berlin.

The major religions are Christianity, Islam, Buddhism and Judaism.

Food in Germany

The Bratwurst sausage is a famous German cuisine.

Meals of the day in German are called:

Frühstück – breakfast

Mittagessen – lunch

Abendessen or Abendbrot – dinner

Did you know?

Author Judith Kerr was born in Berlin, Germany. Both her parents were from German Jewish families.

Let's learn German!

Hello

Hallo

Let's learn German!

Good morning

Guten
morgen

Let's learn German!

Good afternoon

Guten
tag

Let's learn German!

Please

Bitte

Let's learn German!

Thank you

Danke

Let's learn German!

Well done

Gut

Have fun learning a new language!

- Choose a new word to learn each week
- Greet your friends in the morning by saying 'Hello' in German
- Learn how to say 'school dinner' and 'packed lunch'
- Practise some greetings, for example Good Morning or Good Afternoon
- Use <https://www.newburyparkschool.net/lotm/german/player.html> to learn new words and phrases